

R. 2. 23

(Mr. Habibuddin Saheli)

I have much pleasure in endorsing the opinion of other gentlemen regarding the musical talent of Professor Inayat Khan. To my knowledge he is the only Indian who combines the rare knowledge of Oriental & Occidental Music. He has the laudable object of advancing musical culture in the higher classes of the people of India. I wish him every success in his undertaking & earnestly desire that the public of Hyderabad will assist him in his object & recognize his merit similar to the public of Madras & Baroda.
