

"Amir Mahal," Madras.

29th April 1908.

I had the pleasure of introducing Professor Inayat Khan to His Highness The Prince of Arcot on the occasion of His Highness's Birthday, when to the satisfaction of His Highness and other members of His Highness's family he performed his music both vocal and instrumental and was

(His Highness the Prince of Arcot)

R. 9. 12

was amply rewarded. His performance on an arrangement of water bowls (Galatharain) was simply marvellous and every one felt highly delighted. He is a descendant of the great musician Kaula Bakhsh and is a master of the Science and Art

Art of Music. (By Order)

Azum Husain

Private Secretary,
to H. H. the Prince of Acoot

To, Professor

Quay at Khan
R. Nathan of Baroda,
at Madras.