

The Revised Complete Works 1922
- one digital book with new search options and enhanced user friendliness -

The new digital “Green volume” of the Complete Works of 1922 is a revision of the two “Brown volumes” of 1990 (known as 1922 I) and 1996 (known as 1922 II). In this revised version we have reduced the number of footnotes and used academic type setting software, which offers new functionalities for more convenient use of the e-book.

In the digital Green volume you can:

1. Navigate with PDF bookmarks to the chapters and teachings in the text.
2. Click directly to a matching text from
  - the Table of Contents
  - the Glossary of foreign words (not highlighted in text)
  - the significantly expanded Index (not highlighted in text)
  - the grouping of Lectures in Appendix A
3. Click directly from the text to
  - Footnotes from the footnote number
  - Glossary of foreign words from terms in italics in the text
  - Information about persons in Appendix B from names of persons in the texts
  - For some texts: Next lecture in the same category at the bottom of the text
